

Rachel Solomon, SVP, Technical Operations and Engineering, Comcast NBCUniversal

Rachel Solomon is the Senior Vice President of Tech Ops and Engineering for the West Division. In this role, she has end-to-end responsibility for the network, from engineering and overall performance to service installation and delivery. Rachel oversees Advanced Engineering, Engineering Operations, Headend/Critical Infrastructure/Systems Integration, XOC, Network Operations, Technical Operations, and the TCOE.

Rachel joined Comcast in 2015. Prior to her current role, she was the Vice President of Engineering Operations and Headend for the West Division, leading systems integration, critical infrastructure and headends to ensure the network operated efficiently around the clock. Prior to that, she led Tech Ops for the Midwest (formerly Twin Cities) Region and served as VP of Engineering. Her experience also includes five years with General Dynamics Information Technology and 10 years with Verizon.

Rachel holds a Ph.D. in Organization and Management, an MBA, and a BA. She is a graduate of the Tuck Executive Leadership Program and the Betsy Magness Leadership Institute. Rachel is also the Co-Executive sponsor of TechWomen Denver, and an SCTE Rocky Mountain Chapter Associate Board member. Rachel is also on the Board of Directors for Big Brothers Big Sisters of America.

Rachel and her husband Sam love calling Denver their home. They are both endurance athletes who train and compete in Ironman events. They are also avid adventure seekers who love skiing, hiking, biking, swimming, golfing, and traveling to beautiful places with their two dogs, family, and friends. And there isn't a day that goes by without Rachel's love of chocolate being satisfied.
